

Statement of Lisa Bloom, attorney for Janice Dickinson

We are heartened by this morning's news of Bill Cosby's arrest in Pennsylvania. We have been fighting with Mr. Cosby's teams of lawyers for many months now merely to get a day in court for Ms. Dickinson, who alleges that Bill Cosby drugged and raped her in the early 1980s. Though he is a very wealthy and famous celebrity, Mr. Cosby should be subject to the same criminal and civil laws as everyone else.

Mr. Cosby's arrest today is a highly significant chapter in his accusers' long journey toward justice. Every woman who stands up against Mr. Cosby does so in solidarity with the over fifty women who have now had the courage to speak out against him.
